CALL FOR ARTICLES

(Academic, technical and professional researchers)

Godphraim is an information technology training institute established in accordance with the Nigeria law and regulations. At Godphraim Integrated Services, we believe in innovation and management. If the world's organizations and institutions were run more effectively, if our leaders made better decisions, if people worked more productively, we believe that all of us; employees, bosses, customers, our families, and the people our businesses affect - would be better off. Therefore, the Godphraim Journal of Enterprise and Innovative Sciences was established to collect technical and professional research work from researchers for publication which will be used to solve our societal problems.

THE PUBLICATION

This research journal is conceived with a view to encourage and create an avenue for academia, researchers, authors, employees, young researchers and others who are interested in research work, the result of which will be published and be added to the compendium of research works that contribute to knowledge development and provide technical information and new developments in the field of; strategy, leadership, organizational change, sciences, negotiations, operations, innovation, information technology (hard and soft), entrepreneurial sciences, decision making, marketing, finance and work-life balance and other related areas. Godphraim is using this medium to call for articles for publication in the Journal of Enterprise and Innovative Sciences from Professors, Deans of Faculties, Heads of Departments, Lecturers, independent academic researchers, students, professionals and the general public.
